

The Pennsylvania Office in the Czech Republic was contacted by a Czech company which expressed interest in representing new foreign suppliers of food and sweets.

The company was established in 2007. Members of its team, including the sales manager, used to work for a multinational corporation involved in distribution of food and beverages. The company claims to have excellent contacts to all multinational retail chains, food and beverage wholesalers, gas stations, restaurants and bars and other potential points of sale.

The company aims to distribute a wide range of brands to customers in the food and sweet markets. The team has specific experience related to chocolate products, cookies, bubble gums, confection and energy drinks. Brands currently represented include LACHITA, TOXIC, MANNER. Existing contacts to major retail chains include TESCO, AHOLD, BILLA, ROSSMANN, TRAVEL FREE, petrol stations and other in the Czech Republic and also in Slovakia.

If you have any questions, please contact.
